the world took the unusual step of complaining publicly in the american society of hematology's journal the average level of vitamin d for all patients at the start of the trial was 17.5 ng/ml imagine the hard rhymes of chuck d, the fierce delivery of rakim, the old school braggadocio of epmd,