it's always important to remember that drugs are just purified chemicals that usually come from plants